

inside.nku.edu/scra.html

- Reports personal, mental health/medical housing or other concerns impacting staying in school
- Discloses overwhelming family concerns
- Becomes hospitalized or reports experiencing serious illness
- Expresses a desire to withdraw from school

- Presents as depressed, hopeless or excessively anxious
- Expresses suicidal ideation or self-injurious behaviors
- Struggling with mental health
- Expresses an interest in starting therapy

e

- Discloses needing support in filing a Title IX complaint

- Reports academic difficulty due to a physical, psychological or learning disability
- Communicates a need for disability accommodations

- Communicates being a victim of sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual exploitation, sexual harassment, sex/gender discrimination, pregnancy or related conditions, sex stereotypes and characteristics, or any related issue
- Discloses wanting to pursue a Title IX process at NKU

- Reports struggling academically

- Routinely struggling academically

Community Care Team
Student Union 3rd Floor
(859) 572-5147
inside.nku.edu/studentaffairs/departments/dean-of-students/community-care/nku-community-care-team

Counseling Services
University Center 440
(859) 572-5650
inside.nku.edu/studentaffairs/departments/counseling-services

Nurse Violence Prevention (NVP)*

Albright Health Center 246
(859) 572-5865
inside.nku.edu/nvp

*Confidential - student does not need to make a formal report to seek support.

Office for Student Accessibility

Student Union 303
(859) 572-5282
inside.nku.edu/osa

Title IX
University Center 330C
(859) 572-7669
inside.nku.edu/titleix

Nurse Violence Prevention (NVP).....	(859) 572-5282
Title IX	(859) 572-7669
University Connect & Persist (UCAP).....	(859) 572-7527
Wellness Education	(859) 572-5806

HELP A NORSE REPORTING:

Share a student's concern or referral for support through

nku.edu/help-a-nurse

CARE REPORTING RESOURCES

- Community Care Team is the behavioral intervention team for NKU and is interdisciplinary in its makeup. The members work collaboratively to support students experiencing a range of academic, social, behavioral, and mental health concerns.
- Community Standards and Care can answer questions regarding reporting forms, resources, and other